

Dan Grady and his Marvelous Marionette Medley will do a free Family Fare puppet show on Thursday, July 22nd at 6:30pm in Victory Park as part of Manchester City Library's Family Fare series. All area children, parents and grandparents are cordially invited to attend. Bank of New Hampshire is the sponsor for Grady's performance.

The show is a fast-paced production featuring tightrope and trapeze artistry by the Eadarg Brothers and the Country Western crooning of Conway Kitty. They are not to be outdone by the incomparable, slick moving, Roller Skating Rabbit.

Dan Grady and his gang of puppets are celebrating their 23rd year of touring New England and the eastern Seaboard. Since beginning his professional career in 1975 Grady has made hundreds of appearances in over 35 of the United States. He designs and makes all of his stringed puppets, which are called marionettes.
